I managed to grab a few clothes, some coins, my little Ganesh statue, and I ran. How I ran! I ran for a day and a night, then on a bus. No tickets. Never mind, everyone seemed to be running. Finally I found myself in Pambupatti, and I saw some villagers gathered near a well. I ran to them, and before I could say a thing, I fainted. When I opened my eyes, I saw an old man with white hair, white beard and shining black eyes bending over me. For the next few days he looked after me, putting food in my mouth and bringing sweets for me, cool water from the stream, he rubbed my feet gently and made the pain go away.
